

Dr. Grace Williams
Economic & Community Development Manager
March Joint Powers Authority

Dr. Grace I. Williams currently serves as the Economic & Community Development Manager for the March Joint Powers Authority. She manages innovative economic development and marketing strategies for the Authority, and directly supports the Executive Director on initiatives for business attraction, development and retention at March. Grace also manages Foreign Trade Zone #244 which covers over 400 square miles of properties within Riverside County. She is working on expanding the capabilities of the zone to local and international businesses. Grace has more than 15 years of experience in the field of community development and environmental planning, and has overseen the design, entitlement, and construction of over 10 million square feet of businesses in Southern California. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from USC in Urban/Regional Planning with an emphasis in Civil Engineering; a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership & Management from ULV's School of Business and Public Management; and a Doctorate in Policy, Planning & Development from USC's Sol Price School of Public Policy.

To learn more about the March Joint Powers Authority, please click on www.marchjpa.com.